Terms and Conditions:

Term advertising will automatically continue on the current plan and be charged at current rates, using the original payment method on file unless cancellation is provided in writing before the end of the current term. This is to avoid tracking interruptions and additional set-up fees.

Email newsletter ads are one-time only. There are no refunds for email newsletter ads unless the following three conditions are all met: the ad is cancelled within 24 hours of payment, the ad has not already gone out, and you have received a cancellation confirmation. For term ads (such as 3 months or 6 months), you may cancel within the current term with 30 days written notice. Term ads will be refunded from the 31st day after notice is received until the advertising term was scheduled to end. You may let us know at any time if you do not want your advertising to continue upon completion of the current term.

Cancellation submissions must be in writing by fax to (907) 929-0701 or by email to laura@homeschoolcookbook.com. Phone cancellations are not accepted. Upon receipt of written confirmation, you will be provided a cancellation confirmation. It is the advertiser's responsibility to contact us in the event you do not receive a cancellation confirmation.

If you requested tracking, you will receive a link to use along with login information to check your stats at any time. When advertising is cancelled or discontinued, the tracking account will no longer be available.

We reserve the right to decline advertising that we determine to be in competition with our products/services or to be offensive to our client database. Such refusal will be accompanied with a refund, less $20 administrative fee.

Advertising payment is always required in advance. The Advertising Agreement and Submission form must be completed and submitted within 10 days of payment.
